WEEK 5

The countdown for QCMF has well and truly begun, I hope all students are looking forward to attending.

Further information has been sent to families regarding what to pack for the QCMF trip. If you have not received this information and your child will be attending QCMF, please make contact as soon as possible.

Last Friday evening the Our Lady's building was filled with wonderful music from students performing in the Cultural Soiree. Audiences were treated to an exciting set of music presented by the Contemporary Band students, and then entertained with numerous solo and duo acts by some of the talented music students within the College Instrumental music program. A special thankyou to Mr Isaac Graham and Mrs Mary Steer for providing piano accompaniment for some of the performances. Another big thank you to the parents from the Cultural Supporters group for their assistance in the planning and the running of the soiree.

WEEK 5

The Mercy Centre was filled with beautiful music all day on Sunday while the TCC Concert Band students joined together with students from the Yeppoon State High Concert Band and members from the Capricorn Academy Band. The workshop day culminated in a fantastic concert which showcased the phenomenal work all students achieved from their work throughout the day.

Thank you to Capricorn Silver Band for creating this initiative for music students in schools. And a special thank you to Ms Brandi Luck for offering this opportunity to our students.
