WEEK 5

Up next in the chaos that is Eisteddfod time for the music students, we have the vocal section. The College Choir and vocal ensembles will be competing in this section on Monday 20 May.

All choir students and parents have been sent a detailed information letter about their participation in the Eisteddfod. If you have not received this information and your child is a member of the College Choir, Small Vocal Ensemble or Senior Folk Group, please contact me as soon as possible.

If you would like to come along and watch the TCC vocal students perform, tickets can be purchased via the link below:

food for supper

Club night is a fun, social event for RLT members and supporters, adults through to juniors, to get together, catch up and 'get theatrical'. We try and host a Club night a couple of times a year and this is our first for 2024. Ken Cotterill Ken Cotterill - Playwright (doollee.com) and James Forte James Forte (doollee.com) have given permission for us to use three of their scripts for a 'read aloud'. A great opportunity to immerse yourself in different characters, discuss the pros and cons of the plays and get some practice with reading outside an audition environment. Come along ready to watch, participate and discuss. Please bring cash to purchase soft drink and water, and a plate for a shared supper.
