

CULTURAL news

WEEK 5

Disney THE LITTLE MERMAID

Lead auditions will be held this Saturday!

If you are wanting to book an audition spot for a lead roll and haven't done so already, please contact me as soon as possible.

Group auditions will be held next Monday 4 November, 3:15pm – 5:30pm in the Mercy Centre. Please refer to emails for further information.

The next TCC / Parish Mass will be held Saturday 9 November at St. Joseph's Cathedral, 6pm. All are most welcome to attend. The Music Ministry group will be leading the congregation in song. If you would like to be a member of the Music Ministry Group, come along to the music room on Wednesday's during first break.

Past student, Emily Crow (class of 2016) has landed a supporting role in ABC's miniseries Plum, now screening on TV. This is Emily's screen debut, where she is playing the role of the Doctor at the start of the Episode 2. Emily was heavily involved in the Cultural life here at the College and went on to study acting at the Griffith University Queensland Conservatorium. Emily has since moved to Sydney to pursue her career. Congratulations Emily on this fantastic achievement.

CULTURAL news

WEEK 5

The annual College Arts night will be held Friday 15 November. Excitingly, there will also be an art festival running from 9am – 3pm in the Wednesday – Friday as well as on Saturday 8am – 12pm. Please see below flyers for more information:

The ARTS NIGHT. FRI 15 NOV
5-7PM } OUR LADY'S HALL

Join us for an unforgettable Arts Night, where student artworks, sculptures, films, wearable art, and captivating drama and music performances come together to create a night of extraordinary talent. Journey through the minds of tomorrow's artists, where every piece tells a story, every design challenges convention, and every creation inspires awe. Experience creativity in every form and support the future of art in our community!

RSVP today!

The ART FESTIVAL.
OUR LADY'S HALL

Join us at our Arts Festival this November to journey through the minds of tomorrow's artists, where every piece tells a story, every design challenges convention, and every creation inspires awe.

13-16 nov
wed-fri 9AM-3PM } sat 8AM-12PM

Miss Celeste Hack

Cultural + Instrumental Music Coordinator

Cultural Date Claimers.

2 November

The Little Mermaid – Lead Role auditions

4 November

The Little Mermaid Group Audition – Compulsory for all students
Wanting to be on stage for the musical.

15 November

Arts Night

6 December

Term 4 Complete