The Mercy Centre was filled with joy a delicious food last Thursday for the annual Grandparents Morning Tea. Year 7 students and their Grandparents enjoyed a delicious morning tea thanks to the many working hands in the hospitality kitchen under the guidance of Mrs Stacey Rogers and Mrs Leanne Miller. Year 12 student Martin Hannah entertained the guests with his self-accompanied singing and guitar performance of Vincent by Don Mclean.

Last Saturday was the TCC / Parish Mass with nine students at the College receiving their sacraments. The congregation was led in beautiful song by the TCC Music Ministry Group. Year 12 student James Romer prayerfully proclaimed the Psalm. The next TCC / Parish Mass will be Saturday 7 September.

Sunday saw St. Joseph's Cathedral filled with beautiful music from the string groups at their chamber concert. Students from TCC, St. Peter's School, St. Paul's Gracemere, and St. Joseph's Wandal came together to present group and solo performances. Thank you, Dr. Ayesha Hall, for organising this performance opportunity for the string students.
